COMMUNITY OUTREACH & EDUCATION TEAM

Often thought of as a family issue, domestic violence is in fact a social, business and health priority that impacts our entire community.

Our Community Education program uses storytelling, lectures and interactive lessons to change societal attitudes and beliefs, end the stigma associated with DV, and help communities learn to identify and support victims.

Partnering with Montgomery County schools, hospitals, police departments, social service agencies, businesses and organizations, we educate more than 35,000 people a year.
